After Last Verse

2. Let staunch T.T's drink China teas
 With many a knowing wink,
 Let Dagos gaze on wine that's red
 Until their eyes go pink.
 While Sandy, soaked in Mountain Dew,
 Sings "Bonnie Jean" all night,
 And Paddy full of potheen
 Is spoiling for a fight.

CHORUS:

The Nut Brown Ale of England
 Makes men with courage glow.
 And though it's Dutch, with Nelson touch,
 Like supermen you grow.
 You need not join the panel,
 Go in for wearing flannel
 You'll even swim the Channel,
 For those sinking feelings go
 When the Nut Brown Ale of England
 Makes fellow feeling flow.

3. Though bread may be the staff of li
 That makes the life-blood bound.
 Square meals of beef and mutton-cho
 May make the works go round.
 And while fresh air and exercise
 May stimulate our lungs,
 There's only one prescription
 That stimulates our tongues.

CHORUS:

The Nut Brown Ale of England
 Makes constitutions sound.
 No tea in mugs nor cocoa jugs
 Can make this world go round.
 To build an AI nation,
 And a growing population,
 A drink in moderation
 Makes Dad at supper glow.
 For the Nut Brown Ale of England
 Makes fellow feeling flow.

EXTRA CHORUS:

The Nut Brown Ale of England
 Makes fellow feeling flow.
 With every pot your earthly lot,
 More heavenly doth grow.
 Your motor runs are longer,
 Your golf is ten holes stronger,
 Each sprat becomes a conger
 When at closing time you go.
 For the Nut Brown Ale of England
 Makes fellow feeling flow.
