GEORGE PHILIPP TELEMANN was born in Magdeburg ,Germany March 14, 1681 and died in Hamburg June 25, 1767. He was mainly self taught in music and very prolific as a composer. He overshadowed J. S. Bach in the esteem of his contemporaries. He was an expert contrapuntalist and greatly admired by Handel for his contrapuntal technique.

This overture is from First Suite in A minor and composed in 1725. It is one of the most dramatic of all his works. The opening Maestoso should be taken with great deliberation. The Allegro is a very interesting fugue and the theme should be emphasized on each entrance but keeping the other parts subordinated while doing so. The final Lento is similar in style to the opening Maestoso ending in a pompous close.

CLIFFORD P. BARNES, born in Cleveland, Ohio is a well known musician, conductor, composer and arranger. He has made many contributions to the School music literature. He has re-scored and revised for present day use many fine baroque works, making them useful to the School orchestras and bands.
